1. Rooms are being requisitioned in Bitolj for billeting junior officers of the Yugoslav Army who are to take a training course in the military school which has been established there.
2. Two large buildings are under construction near Veles on the Veles-Bitolj railroad line. The concrete beams for one of the buildings are being erected while only the foundation of second building has been completed. Many types of building materials are assembled there, and a large number of men are engaged in intensive activity. There is no inhabited village near the buildings, and informant believes they are intended for military use.
